Farmingville, NY - - On July 26, Councilwoman Jane Bonner (right) attended the Sound Beach Civic Association's 40th Anniversary celebration. At the event, the Councilwoman honored Cassidy Frey from Miller Place High School, who was awarded a $1000 scholarship from the Sound Beach Civic Association. This past school year, Cassidy received the Foreign Language Honor Society Award and has done many hours of community service, including events to raise money for breast cancer awareness and in the fight against leukemia. In the fall, she will attend

Coastal Carolina University in Conway, South Carolina.

Councilwoman Bonner said, "Cassidy has proven to be a leader among her peers and is well deserving of this honor. She has a bright future ahead and I wish her the best of luck as she moves on to college."
